The Lieutenant Governor is the representative of Her Majesty The Queen in Ontario. The Office coordinates, supports and promotes the activities of the Lieutenant Governor. In his constitutional role, the Lieutenant Governor swears-in the Executive Council, outlines the Government's plans in the Speech from the Throne, provides the Royal Assent needed for bills to become law, approves orders-in-council and appointments recommended by Cabinet, and prorogues or dissolves each session of Parliament. In his community role, the Lieutenant Governor represents the people of Ontario and acts as the Province's official host, welcoming world leaders and diplomats. He hosts or attends hundreds of community events throughout Ontario, often speaking out in support of mental health, anti-racism and aboriginal youth. He presents honours and awards to outstanding Ontarians, and on request, sends messages for special celebrations and congratulations for birthdays (>90) and wedding anniversaries (>50).

THE ONTARIO GOVERNMENT

Queen Elizabeth II is the head of State, represented in Ontario by the Lieutenant Governor.

Ontario's parliamentary system has three branches:

The Executive Branch is comprised of elected representatives. The Premier and Ministers of the Crown collectively form the Cabinet of Ontario. Ministers are responsible for policies and program delivery in 24 ministries. The government is generally formed by the political party winning a majority of seats (representatives) in an election, with the party leader becoming the Premier of Ontario.

The Legislative Branch is comprised of all elected representatives and is presided over by a Speaker. It makes, amends and repeals laws, authorizes taxes, reviews expenditure estimates, receives reports, and debates bills, motions and resolutions.

The Judicial Branch is comprised of appointed individuals who administer justice by adjudicating criminal and civil disputes in Ontario's courts.

Ontario's government is supported by the Ontario Public Service, headed by the Secretary of the Cabinet.

Cabinet Office functions as the Premier's ministry, providing advice and critical analysis to the Premier in support of his role as President of the Executive Council. It manages the decision-making structures of the Ontario Government, ensuring that they effectively reflect the policies and programs of the government. In addition, Cabinet Office, working with the Premier's Office, supports Cabinet and its committees in establishing an agreed upon policy agenda and overall priorities, and works with ministries to ensure that a full range of policy options is provided to Cabinet. From time to time, Cabinet Office establishes special working groups to develop policy in areas of particular priority or which require inter-ministry coordination. Cabinet Office coordinates corporate communications and issues management processes, liaises with the Lieutenant Governor and liaises with the Government House Leader's Office on the legislative agenda.

In Ontario, mediation through FSCO is a mandatory first step for disputes over accident benefits. The mediator will facilitate discussions with the parties to help them resolve their dispute, but will not make a decision for the parties. If mediation is unable to resolve the dispute, the claimant has these options: file for arbitration at FSCO, pursue private arbitration or go to court. An arbitration involves a formal hearing after which the arbitrator issues a written decision. After arbitration, either party may appeal a decision on issues of law to FSCO's Director of Arbitrations. Parties may also apply to have an appeal or arbitration order varied or revoked based on a material change in the insured person's circumstances.

CCACs are governed by independent, incorporated non-profit boards of directors, accountable through service agreements to the ministry.

Ontario Parks coordinates Ontario's parks and protected areas system, leads the provincial Species at Risk Program and manages more than 314 provincial parks with an area of over 7.65 million hectares. Parks are managed to protect representative and unique examples of Ontario's natural and cultural heritage. A majority of parks emphasize protection, but over 100 are operated to provide recreation, canoe tripping, hiking, nature viewing, camping, picnicing, swimming and more. Many of these parks offer natural and cultural heritage education programs. Parks are popular camping destinations, so campsite reservations are recommended. They can be made for more than 65 provincial parks by calling 1-888-ONT-PARK, or on the Internet at www.OntarioParks.com. The Web site includes information about park operating dates, barrier free access, contacting parks, facilities and services, park regulations, and a host of other subjects.

ntario Culture on a Roll

Culture touches all of us, makes us who we are, and reflects us to the world.

The big picture of Ontario culture includes: internationally praised museums and art galleries; thriving arts communities and organizations; an extensive network of cutting-edge libraries; dynamic cultural industries from book publishing to film production; natural and built heritage sites; and much more.

The province's 13 cultural agencies and boards range from The Ontario Arts Council - which fosters artists and arts organizations, to science centres in Toronto and Sudbury.

The provincial government is playing its role to assure that culture in Ontario stays on a roll.
